Numb. 7665.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 7. to Tuesday January 10. 1737.

Petersbourg, December 10.

LAST Wednesday, the 7th Instant, being the Birth-day of Princess Anne, who then entered into the Twentieth Year of her Age, all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility waited on her Highness in the Morning to make their Compliments, after which they dined at Court, and at Night there was a Ball. The 9th being the same Princess's Name-day, they had again the Honour in the Morning to make her their Compliments, and were invited to sup at Court, where there was a Ball. Felt Marshal Count Lacy arrived here on the 3d Instant; and Felt Marshal Count Munich is daily expected.

Copenhagen, Jan. 4, N. S. Upon New-Year's Day, Lieutenant General Schulemberg, his Danish Majesty's Envoy to the Court of France, was declared General of the Horse, in the Room of General Morner, who had desired his Dismission; and at the same time M. Plessen, one of the King of Denmark's Chamberlains, was appointed Grand Master of the Queen's Court. Two or three other Promotions were then made in the military Way, but of little Note.

Dresden, Jan. 8, N. S. By a Messenger who arrived here the 1st Instant from Rome, the King has received the News of the Bishop of Cracow's being made Cardinal, thro' his Intercession. It is reported, that General Baudits who has commanded the Saxon Troops as the Senior General since the Prince of Wiessenfels quitted, is to retire from hence, but to preserve his Pension; and Count Sulkowski it is said will be made Felt Marshal to the Emperor, and have the Command in Chief of the Saxon Troops. M. Kyserling the Russian Minister, arrived here last Night from Dantzick. Count Rutowski and the Chevalier de Saxe are arrived here from Caskaw, and the King received them in a Manner that sufficiently marked how much he was pleased with their Conduct. M. Ozakowski seems to stand fair for the Charge of Great Treasurer of Poland, as he still remains attached to the Family of Czartoriski, he will by their Means get the Recommendation of the Court of Russia, which will be a great Help to him.

Whitehall, January 9, 1737-8.

Whereas on the Eleventh Day of October last, about Ten o' Clock at Night, a Barn full of Corn, consisting of Eighteen Bays of Building, and a Stable, both in the Possession of Thomas Hanson, of Bradfield, in the County of Berks, were wilfully set on Fire by Persons unknown, and burnt to the Ground: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in this heinous Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, William Thompson, Esq; the Landlord of the said Barn and Stable and Farm, to which the same do belong, doth hereby promise, that whoever shall make such Discovery, shall on such Conviction receive from him the Sum of Twenty Guineas. William Thompson.

Whitehall, January 6. 1737.

Whereas by an Inquisition taken at Fontmel Magna, in the County of Dorset, on the 18th Day of December last past, before one of the Coroners of the said County, it has been found, That in the Night between Thursday and Friday the 15th and 16th Days of the said Month of December, as John Tothevill was going from his House in Fontmel Magna aforesaid, to West Lodge in the Parish of Iwerne Minster, in the said County, he was assaulted by a Person or Persons unknown, who, with a large Stick, or some other weighty Weapon or Weapons, struck him on the Head several Blows, whereby by his Scull was fractured acroſs the Crown of his Head, from Ear to Ear, to the Length of ten Inches, and upwards, of which he languiſhed till Friday the 16th Day of the ſaid Month of December, about Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and then he thereof died; and that the ſaid Perſon or Perſons him the ſaid John Tothevill did wilfully and maliciouſly kill and murder: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid Murder, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually committed the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Major Jonathan Driver, dwelling in Queen Square, Weſtminſter, does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Jona. Driver.

Whitehall, January 3, 1737-8.

Whereas Mr. Richard Warre, of Piggotts in the County of Bucks, received a Letter on Friday the 30th of December laſt paſt, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, threatning to take away his Life, and burn his Houſe, Barns, and Reeks, if he did not lay the Sum of Fifty Pounds at the Root of an Oak Tree near his Dwelling-houſe that very Night. His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, I the ſaid Richard Warre do hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid Letter ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, ſhall have a Reward of Fifty Pounds on ſuch Conviction.

Ri. Warre.
